2014-2015
Annual Report

Who are we?

An Agency Founded on Caring for our Community...

Has served the Inland Valley since 1968. Incorporated as the Inland Valley Council of Churches, the agency is doing business as the Inland Valley Hope Partners. We support those living in poverty, by providing food, shelter and supportive services.

An Agency Driven by our Mission

A collaboration bringing together faith communities, businesses, individuals and community groups, the agency's mission is to ensure the empowerment of people in need, by providing food, shelter and supportive services

And our Values.....

We believe

- ◆ In the worth and dignity of every person.
- ◆ We are all connected in the human family.
- ◆ God calls us to serve one another.
- ◆ In empowering people.
- ◆ In the value of working together.

An Agency Serving our Community...

Inland Valley Hope Partners' mission extends to the communities of:

Chino	Mt. Baldy
Chino Hills	Ontario
Claremont	Pomona
Diamond Bar	Rancho Cucamonga
La Verne	San Dimas
Montclair	Upland
	Walnut

and contiguous unincorporated areas.

Every year some 75,000 men, women and children are served through Inland Valley Hope Partners' six food distribution sites, temporary housing, rental assistance and the farmer's market.

The Food Security Program (Sova, Beta, Claremont, and San Dimas, South Pomona and Upland) provided food for about 900,000 meals this past year, and helped more than 50 families stay in their homes through rental and utility assistance.

The Housing Program (Our House Shelter, rental assistance and motel voucher assistance) provided over 12,000 bed nights this past year.

The Farmer's Market offers fruits and vegetables to an average of 350 shoppers every week, and included the Market Match program, where shoppers receiving funds through programs such as SSI, SSDI, WIC, may receive a 2:1 match.

The GleaningHope Program collected more than 10,000 lbs of fresh fruits, which were shared directly with our clients at the food pantries and shelter.

The Constantine Family Orchard and Gardens provided close to 4000 pounds of tomatoes, zucchinis, beans, onions, egg plants, broccoli, carrots, and much, much more to our clients at the food pantries and the shelter.

Program Overview

Inland Valley Hope Partners had a very busy program year. We continued to see a high demand for emergency food and shelter. We are very grateful to our volunteers and staff who provide the day-to-day hands-on service to our clients. We continued to use volunteer support, including those from our local colleges. Following is a brief overview of our programs during 2014 – 2015.

Housing Program

Our House Shelter is our family temporary housing and stabilization program. We provided up to 90 days of shelter and provisions for about 100 individuals, at least half of these being children. The Our House shelter team helped 80 individuals move into permanent housing, and 90% of the residents leaving the shelter were employed in a job that paid them livable wages. Grants and donations enabled us to provide child care, psycho-social counseling services and many other services that help lead to self-sufficiency for our clients. Counseling and support group leadership was once again provided by the able students and staff at The Clinebell Institute. In addition to the temporary housing, this program also offers rental assistance as funding becomes available.

Food Security Program

Our Food Security program has continued to serve some 4,000 people a month with the help of many volunteers, including students from various universities, such as the University of Phoenix. The LA Regional Food Bank provides our program with thousands of pounds of food every week, much of it free, and the rest of it at a very low administrative cost, so we were able to serve our neighbors, and didn't have to turn anyone away. The Food Advisory Committee supports the staff during special events like food drives, Walk for the Hungry, Golf Tournament, and the Albertson's Thanksgiving and Christmas Projects, the latter providing full dinners to over 100 families.

Food drives were held by companies, the postal services, and many others. During the year, through collaborative efforts, we added two once/month food distributions: one in south Pomona at UrbanMission, and the other one in Upland, at Pacific Life line. These are in addition to our Sova (Ontario) and Beta (Pomona) sites, and the ones in Claremont and San Dimas.

Thank you Constantine Family Gardens for providing our families with much needed fresh grown vegetables and to the volunteers that dedicate so much time and energy to help.

Pomona Valley Certified Farmers' Market

The Pomona Valley Certified Farmers' Market, on Garey Ave. and Pearl Street in the parking lot of Pomona First Baptist Church, is open every Saturday from 7:30 to 11:30 AM. It features a wide selection of seasonal fruits and vegetables, nuts, bread, flowers, plants, eggs, honey and tamales. The Market accepts food stamps, and is currently the only Farmers' Market in the valley that accepts WIC, including for Seniors. It is now the farthest east market in Los Angeles County that provides Market Match to shoppers with CalFresh, SSI, SSDI, and other programs.

Volunteer Program

Inland Valley Hope Partners can only provide its services to some 75,000 people annually through the committed support of over 200 volunteers. Since March this year the volunteers are overseen by a f/t volunteer coordinator, who we were able to hire through two grants (from the Ralph Parson's Foundation and Rose Hills Foundation). Volunteers also supported our services through the GleaningHope program. The program started in January 2010, thanks to a grant from Kaiser, and has collected over 60,000 pounds of fruit to date. Fruits, ranging from lemons and oranges to avocados, go directly to our food pantries and shelter to serve our no, very low and low income clients. Over 200 food drives were organized this year: companies, postal service, in front of grocery stores, faith communities (many ongoing).

Resource Development

This year we were blessed with several large and smaller grants from private foundations for program and general support. The Ralph Parson's Foundation and the Rose Hills Foundation funded the new Volunteer Coordinator position for two years, and the Weingart Foundation funded us for two years with a very generous core support grant.

Our 41st Walk for the Hungry welcomed more than 500 attendees and raised close to $60,000 thanks to the online walker registration and many helping hands like those of our volunteer walk committee, Inter Valley Health Plan, Bank of the West, Albertson's, and others. Blessings and thanks go to our long-time partners within the faith communities as well as the businesses and individuals without whom this yearly event could never be successful.

Our 19th annual Golf Classic at Sierra Lakes Golf Course welcomed our loyal golfers, as well as many new supporters, and it was just an amazing day, because it began pouring rain 1/2 hour after the shotgun start! But, many of the golfers finished 9 holes before they came in, and 4 foursomes even finished all 18 holes in the driving rain. Thanks to quick work at the club, dinner was served a couple of hours early.

Food Drives helped us a lot this past year as did regular donations of food, thank you to the Pomona Unified School District for their weekly donations and for their commitment to helping our food program.

Faith Relations

Faith Community Meetings – We meet regularly with local long-supporting and newly-interested congregations alike. Our Faith Communities assisted us in many ways: from our Alternative Christmas, Adopt-A-Family programs, and Albertsons Giving Thanks/Giving Joy Programs to assisting our housing program "Our House Shelter", where residents will receive meals, clothing donations, holiday baskets, and have children's activities on a regular basis. We wish to acknowledge the many volunteers that come to us from within our faith communities; they give their time, talent and treasure in many areas.

Community Ecumenical Meetings – We attend monthly community ecumenical meetings to keep in touch with the local faith leaders, including Claremont Interfaith Council, and the Chino Faith-Based Meeting.

Giving

Inland Valley Hope Partners is grateful for the time, treasure and talent it receives from so many sources. Faith communities, businesses, volunteers, individual donors, foundations and public and private grant sources help the agency provide services that transform the lives of the hungry and homeless. This year especially we were blessed with support from many sources. Private foundations supporting our programs included: Kaiser, Weingart, Rose Hills, Price, Ontario Community, Lon V. Smith and Stater Brothers Charities. Government funding came through the cities of Rancho Cucamonga, Ontario, Pomona, Upland, Claremont, as well as Los Angeles County.

Giving comes in many forms: Inland Valley Hope Partners not only receives monetary gifts, but also in-kind donations, such as food donations through food drives, books for our kids through book drives, water for the Walk, program space and newsletter printing.

A third way of giving is provided through the many dedicated volunteers, who give of their time to further our mission and programs: brighten up the shelter, volunteers who are at the food security sites every week to interview clients, and much, much more. There are no words to express our gratitude.

And last but not least, giving comes through the agency's paid staff who are devoting their lives to helping our clients succeed.

Circle of Hope Legacy Giving

Several supporters joined the Circle of Hope Legacy Giving this past year. If you've included a legacy gift to Inland Valley Hope Partners (or Inland Valley Council of Churches) in your will or trust, be sure to let us know, and thank you so much for your support, current and future!

A legacy gift provides benefits to the donor and helps further Inland Valley Hope Partners' work. For more information about joining those that are leaving a legacy gift benefiting the Inland Valley Hope Partners, or a copy of our current policies, contact us at 909-622- 3806, #105.
